OCTOBER 5, 6 AND 7

The Dates for Mansfield's Fifth Annual Agricultural & Stock Show

GENERAL RULES

1. Entries to all departments of the show are open for premiums only to residents of Wright, Douglas, Webster and Texas counties.

2. Entries free to all competitors for premiums in all departments.

3. All entries in all departments for premiums, except stock, must be made on the first day of the show.

Stock must be entered before 12 noon on the second day of the show.

All sheep entries, only, to be kept by Association.

All loose grains must be exhibited in sacks.

For the purpose of encouraging new work, it is ruled that all exhibits in Departments C and E, that have been awarded first premium any previous year, are barred; also, that all articles entered in these departments must be the work of the exhibitor making the entry.

In Department H, a trio constitutes a pen of chickens.

In Department I, unless otherwise specified, all entries are limited to school pupils who have not completed the 8th grade; age will be considered in judging the work.

4. All entries, except stock, must remain throughout the show.

5. All possible care will be taken to prevent accident or loss, but all exhibits will be at owners' risk.

6. Superintendents of the different departments will be at the show room to assist exhibitors in placing their exhibits, during the show. Any exhibitor interfering with the superintendents or judges in the discharge of their duties will forfeit the premium.

7. Blue ribbon denotes first premium on all exhibits, and red ribbon denotes second premium. Except in Departments F, G and H, where only one entry is made second prize will be paid.

8. Any persons having articles they desire to exhibit, not mentioned on premium list may exhibit same and they will be passed upon by the judges and a ribbon denoting first and second premium attached, but no cash premium will be paid. Entries from outside Wright, Douglas, Webster and Texas counties are invited but not for competition for premiums.

9. All stand and ground rights will be in the charge of the executive committee, who will have the power to exclude any person or show that is objectionable and will charge and collect for all ground privileges. All applicants for ground rights or privileges, correspond with this committee; 50 per cent of the concession fee must be paid in advance, balance payable second day of show.

10. Superintendents of departments are not to be judges of same but are to have control of receiving and placing exhibits. Competent and disinterested parties will be selected as judges by heads of departments.

11. Premiums not claimed within ten days after the close of the show will be forfeited to the association.
